

Lincolnshire Young Musician of the Year Competition, 2024

Organised by Louth Male Voice Choir since 1989

Rules and Prizes, Terms and Conditions

Applications

Applications are welcomed from boys and girls who live in, or who are educated in the historic county of Lincolnshire, including North Lincolnshire and North East Lincolnshire. There are 3 age groups (ages at 31 August 2024) and separate competitions for instrumentalists and vocalists. Competitors may enter more than one category.

- Juniors (Under 11's), closing date for video entries 16 October
- Intermediates (Under 14's) closing date for video entries 18 October
- Seniors (Under 18's), closing date for video entries 20 October.

GUIDE TO VIDEO RECORDING

You will receive an email within 2 days of your video submission to confirm receipt. Soon after you will receive a telephone call to explain how the rest of the process will be conducted. All who are selected to perform on 9 November must be accompanied by an adult who will be responsible for their conduct and safety.

Those selected by the adjudicators will take part in the competition to be held at Louth Methodist Church, Nichol Hill, LN11 9NQ on 9 November. We aim to make it a friendly and positive event. All performers will receive constructive feedback from experienced adjudicators. The decisions of the adjudicators are final and no discussions, written or verbal, will be entered into.

Prizes

Young Musician of the Year

In addition to the winning prize for the relevant competition the overall winner will receive £50.

Senior Competition

Each winner of the vocal and instrumental competitions will receive £400.

Each second place in the vocal and instrumental competitions will receive £150.

Each third place in the vocal and instrumental competitions will receive £75.

Intermediate Competition

Each winner of the vocal and instrumental competitions will receive £250.

Each second place in the vocal and instrumental competitions will receive £100.

Each third place in the vocal and instrumental competitions will receive £50.

Junior Competition

Winners and all runners up will receive shield and certificates.

Some of the category winners will also receive cups which they may retain until the following year's competition. Acceptance of these terms is a condition of entry into the competition.

Questions?

If you have any questions about the competition please do not hesitate to contact Malcolm Kerridge 01507 607371 or 07999 806 187.